

Summary - Always think from the perspective of the child/young person in your care.

- ▶ What affect will your choices have on your young performer?
- ▶ Will your choices of leadership style make the young performer feel like a winner?
- ▶ Will your leadership choices motivate the young performer to want to continue in your sport/activity?
- ▶ Do your choices protect you as the coach as well as the young performer.
- ▶ Don't forget you are the role model, how you lead is not only about coaching, it is about teaching your young performers what is acceptable. It is about their perception of what is good practise.
- ▶ As a coach or umpire you have great power.

'With great power comes great responsibility'.
